

An eye toward the future with a vision of the past

Have you ever wanted to “hang out” with people who share your interest?

Or wished to learn more about the family history process?

Have you ever wanted to share your stories of family with friends and future generations?

Well, so have we. We are the Fox Valley Genealogical Society.

We are writing our stories for our families and other genealogists.

This is an exciting time to be a genealogist. Thanks to the Internet, we can communicate with “cousins”
more easily, share our facts, and find our DNA matches.

FVGS is here to help you navigate the world of genealogy and have fun doing it.
